ROUND IV - MAY 27TH, 2006

LIGHTNING CUP DIVISIONS

JUNIORS

While there was a small turnout for the Juniors competition, there was no lack of excitement. Joey McKeag (#74) racing under the Russ Uppmann Motorsports banner with support from Baker Precision, NEO Oil, Specialty Car, H.T. Auto Machine and Harris Motorsports, won the main event in convincing fashion over Hesperia based Benjamin Mahan (#12) and local racer Calvin Smith (#26) from Lancaster. McKeag also won the trophy dash.

SENIORS

Dean Caskey (#08) dominated the Seniors competition from start to finish in his Patricia Caskey, CPA/Russ Uppmann Motorsports sponsored rig. Patti Caskey (#06) made it a family one-two punch for the Grand Terrace based couple as Ms. Caskey took second place with Ventura racer Kim Williams (#74) taking third. Rick Walton (#12) out of La Cresenta, a long-time Willow Springs regular won the Trophy Dash in his first race of the season.

OUTLAW I-4/I-6 DIVISION

Perennial favorite Jeffery Goddard (#93) sponsored by Roy Bros. Drilling, Malibu Auto and Santa Monica Heating and Air occupied the front position throughout the 30-lap competition, followed by Tom Morley (#18) of Woodland Hills and Jodi Davis (#0) of Oxnard. Goddard also grabbed the Outlaw's trophy dash.

STUNTMAN RACE

As of press time, Stuntman race results were not available, due to an internal race audit by the Stuntmen's Association. When results are made available, we will post them to the website

SUPER SPORTSMAN DIVISION

The Sportsman main event saw local young gun Alex Anderson (#77) of Rosamond take charge in the early running, only to see his lead stolen by veteran John Penning (#30) in Lap 10. It seemed like smooth sailing for Lebec-based Penning until another crafty veteran, former Super Sportsman Champion, Chris Peedan (#98x) pulled past Penning on lap twenty-six. Peedan who is sponsored by The Balance Shop, Barry Woulf Racing, Ron's Rear Ends and Chikato Bros. Ice Co.; held off Penning for the victory. Current points leader Kenny Kranzler (#14) of Simi Valley, finished third. Anderson won the trophy dash, marking his first Super Sportsman victory.
